

WHY NO SHIPPING BOARD SHIPS?

Is there any reason why the Portsmouth Navy Yard should not get some of the United States Shipping Board ships to repair? New York and Boston have just received orders to spend several millions. The cash comes not from navy appropriations and it has resulted in fewer discharges. Funds are needed at the local yard. The work can be done quickly and well here. The Herald has asked Judge Payne to send some of the ships here and the request will be backed up by our delegation in Congress.

PRICE TWO CENTS

NEAR RIOT AT SOLDIERS BONUS HEARING

Committee of Congress Threatens to Adopt Many Reservations With Aid of 15 Democrats

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 3.—Another row occurred today at the hearings before the House Ways and Means Committee on soldier relief measures. It came when Edward H. Hale, representing veterans of foreign wars, told the committee that statements were made yesterday by Franklin D'Olier, commander of the American Legion, were "erroneous and should be contradicted." A storm of protest resulted but the chairman restored quiet by warning that unless order could be maintained the hearings would be discontinued. After five minutes of wrangling among members during which several started to leave the room, the chairman ruled that witnesses should not criticize other organizations. Hale urged passage of a bill authorizing relief to discharged service men at the rate of $30 a month instead of $50 with an additional grant of $100 to those who served overseas. He favored passage of the Morgan Bill which would give service men the option of selecting homesteads. "How could the money be raised for this bonus?" asked Representative Kitchin. "There is a public debt of $25,000,000,000 now," Olier said. "I would like to tax all incomes above $50,000 at the rate of 2 per cent graduating them until 7 per cent would be charged on incomes above $1,000,000. This would provide $200,000,000, according to the Internal Revenue Bureau." Hale said

"In appreciation and nothing more" had been extended to discharged soldiers. "These men," he declared, "have been turned back to civilian life with 60 pieces of silver and they have been brought face to face with the ingratitude of the republic. The wonder is that they have stood so long the apathetic attitude of Congress." Members of Congress received back pay when they were discharged from the army and returned to Congress, he said, adding that others were equally as deserving as ex-soldier congressmen.

Committee of Congress Threatens to Adopt Many Reservations With Aid of 15 Democrats

This vote was 65 to 31 in November when only nine democrats joined with the republicans. The full jurisdiction of the United States on matters of domestic affairs, was approved by a vote of 65 to 25 eleven democrats joining with the republicans.

BURKE MURDER JURY DISAGREES

After 19 Hours Foreman Announced Could Not Agree

(By Associated Press)
Skowhegan, Maine, March 3.—The jury at the trial of John A. Burke, former deputy sheriff and tax collector at Jackson, who was charged with the murder of Nelson W. Bartley, keeper of a sportsman's hotel, returned a disagreement at 6 a. m. today after 19 hours deliberation. Burke was remanded to jail to await retrial. Burke heard the announcement with emotion. His wife was not present. Judge Dunn who held the court over throughout the night interviewed the jury several times. When he told shortly before 6 a. m. by the foreman that progress was being made, he announced that he could stand it no longer as the jurors could. Shortly after the disagreement was reported, Burke and Bartley had long been friends but quarreled shortly before the latter's death over liquor smuggling operations in which they had been engaged and which had been financed with funds Burke had obtained as tax collector. During the trial it was reported that Burke, if acquitted would be prosecuted on charges of liquor smuggling and a charge of murder until the jury reported.

To Dr. W. T. BOARD DISMISSES NAVAL PRISON CHARGES

Asst. Secretary Roosevelt's Report Made Public---Upholds Administra- tion of Thomas Mott Osborne and Denied Charges of Department of Justice Agents

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 2.—Charges of immorality and lack of discipline of the inmates of the Portsmouth Naval Prison, were held to be without foundation in the report of the special board of inquiry headed by Asst. Secretary Franklin D. Roosevelt, which was made public today by the Navy Department.

The board's report upheld the administration of Lieut. Commandant Thomas Mott Osborne, declaring that the allegations were based upon hearsay evidence and unreliable witnesses. Formal charges of immorality lodged by the Department of Justice Agents with the Navy Department, were declared to be based upon the same type of unreliable witnesses.

The practice of using the prisoners as guard of the prison was justified from the fact that there had been only one escape in two years, and adding that the record also carried a denial that the prisoners constituted a menace to the community. The board in order to cut the red tape, recommended that the detail management of the prison be left to a department bureau to handle the correspondence rather than have it go through the First Naval district or the Commandant of the Portsmouth yard. The board announced that it would make supplementary recommendations, as to the detail management and classification of the prisoners at a later date. The board with Mr. Roosevelt consisted of Rear Admiral Dunn of the First Naval District and Halstead Commandant of the Portsmouth yard.

MANCHESTER LOOKS FOR RECORD FLOODS

Manchester, N. H., March 2.—Unless all signs fail, New Hampshire is threatened with a spring gusher this year that will equal the famous floods of 1896 and 1898, the later the largest in volume and the amount of damage done recorded in the history of the Merrimack valley.

The works and fields in the watershed in the north country are covered with a depth of snow unprecedented for years, of such depth in some sections that lumbering operations have been impossible.

The ground was frozen deep before the first fall of snow, and the result of a sudden thaw would be to send the water in torrents into the tributaries of the Merrimack river. The ice is more than two feet thick on the river and loosened by the flood, would add to the danger to bridges and buildings along the river banks.

Grave anxiety is expressed among those familiar with flood conditions on the Merrimack that should a flood come this spring the old Amoskeag bridge weakened by years of traffic to such an extent as to be closed for months as unsafe, will be carried from its piers and swept down stream. Should this occur, there would be great danger that bridges farther down the stream would be caught in the wreck and carried away or damaged.

DOVER

Dover, Mar. 3.—John Tymon, who for several weeks was on the dangerous list at the house of correction after drinking wood alcohol, showed his appreciation of Supt. Hartford's effort to make him comfortable, by expressing at the first opportunity, Dover's police department was notified that Tymon was absent without leave.

In police court the case was heard of State vs. Peter Vlasenator, who was arraigned on a charge of striking the complainant. The defendant denied the charge, but after hearing the evidence, Judge Stevens found the respondent guilty and imposed a fine of $5 and costs.

Through the efforts of 150 students of New Hampshire State college, the Boston and Maine railroad yard in Dover has been cleared, and yesterday two freight trains passed through Dover for the first time since the storm. The tracks of the yard are freed from all ice and snow. The students worked all day and part of the evening. Cars are running between Dover and Rochester and the line to Somersworth was opened yesterday afternoon. The only line which has not been cleared of snow is the line to Portsmouth and South Berwick. The company has a crew of men working on the road.

Collector of Taxes Harry A. Morrison and Daniel D. Muloney have completed their work for the year 1919, establishing a new record in Dover. Sergt. Alfie of the army recruiting station scored a big hit at the Strand theatre Monday night with his talk on the advantages of the enlisted man in the army and on the educational and vocational training courses.

At the meeting of Kankumung tribe of Red Men at Red Men's hall the adoption degree was conferred on a class of candidates. The work was exemplified by the Dover degree team.

The body of James Hughes, who died at Providence, R. I., after an attack of pneumonia was brought to Dover yesterday and taken to the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Theresa Hughes, 299 Central avenue. The funeral services were held from St. Mary's church.

The father and son banquet Monday night was a real success, and a large crowd was present. After the banquet, Chester B. Hall, the toastmaster, introduced Clarence Gray as the first speaker. John F. Minick responded to the toast "Our Sons," and the principal speaker was Percy M. Foster.

The Dover friends of Irving Southworth, former agent of the Cooshee branch of the Pacific mills, are pleased to learn of his appointment as assistant and superintendent of the Pacific mills. He will relieve Walter E. Parker of the direct management.

The single exception being on the matter of the island of Lissa, which according to the Jugo-Slav is strictly Slav and should not be ceded to Italy.

CALLS IT A NEW DEMOCRATIC ARMY

It is just dawning upon republicans who have been zealous in pushing on the prohibition wave that they have been instrumental in building up a huge new army of democratic politiconcerned on Saturday, the details of the Turkish treaty being left to the conference of foreign ministers and ambassadors.

Although the council is silent as to what terms will be allotted to Turkey, it is understood that the subscriptions to be made from her territory will decrease her population from 30,000,000 to 6,000,000. This will necessitate an entire readjustment of Turkey's debt. The disposition of the Turkish fleet has not yet been decided upon.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford car can well be called the "people's car," because there are more than 3,000,000 of them in daily operation. That is about four to one of the nearest follower in the motor car industry. This would not be so if the Ford car had not for sixteen years proven its superiority in service, in durability, and in the low cost for operation and maintenance; this would not be so if the Ford car was not so easy to understand, so simple in construction that anybody and everybody can safely drive it. Let us have your order for one now to avoid delay in delivery.

Socialism According to Hillquit.

Morris Hillquit of New York, a leading Socialist, was very frank in his statements while testifying some days ago before the Assembly Judiciary Committee in the cases of the suspended Socialist assemblymen. He predicted that control of the government will pass peacefully into the hands of the Socialist party after the working class has been enrolled in the ranks of that party, but added that "it is not impossible that the people of this country may be compelled to supplement their political action with a little shooting." What he meant by this was that the Socialist victory is to be won by peaceable means, but if, after the victory has been won, the minority under takes to stand out against Socialist rule, the application of force would be necessary to compel "respect for the government." Mr. Hillquit said that history shows that when the privileged minority is about to lose its privileges it becomes desperate and tries to destroy reform or lawful revolutionary movements by force, and that for this reason the Socialists when they come into power must be prepared to "back up their ballots with their bullets."

It is well to have the Socialist program so clearly outlined by a man who knows what he is talking about. Mr. Hillquit is not an ignorant foreigner. He is a man of education and ability, and once polled a good sized vote as a candidate for mayor of New York city. He has long been identified with the Socialist cause, and the public has a right to regard what he has to say on the subject as authoritative.

To the program advanced by him for acquiring control of the government there can be no objection. It is to convert a majority of the people to the Socialists' point of view and march to power by way of the ballot box. This is something which they have a perfect right to do, so long as the laws of the land are respected during the process.

But there are many radical elements in the country who are not willing to work and wait for victory at the ballot box. They would like to overthrow the government by force and are working to that end. Whether Mr. Hillquit intended to speak for those elements may be a question, but he had good words for Victor Berger, who has been ruled out of Congress for unpatriotic acts; and for Eugene V. Debs, who is serving a sentence for violation of the espionage act.

Under all the circumstances what Mr. Hillquit had to say on this occasion will not strengthen the cause of Socialism. The public is awake to the dangerous character of the various isms that are working against the government, and it has awakened none too soon. For years disloyal agitation has been tolerated on the theory that the evil would evolve its own remedy, but it is now recognized that there is a limit beyond which it is not safe to allow this thing to go. The danger is spreading, and to sit idly by and witness its expansion in silence would be nothing short of suicidal.

Fortunately the country is not ready to do this. It recognizes a danger that is real and not imaginary, and is prepared to deal with the menace as it should and must be dealt with. There will be no oppression in connection with this important work, but there will be repression and suppression of the forces that are working openly and secretly against a government that stands for the liberties and rights of all.

And this is as it should be.

The girls will do well not to get excited over the fortune of a young woman of Bar Harbor, Me., who has inherited $100,000 from a newspaperman by whom she was formerly employed. Most newspapermen leave but little but their "fourth estates," which are not worth much to anybody else.

Congratulations to Dartmouth College, which receives $300,000 by the will of a wealthy alumnus who recently died in Washington, D. C. Leaving money to educational institutions is a popular habit in this country, and one of the most commendable.

The government is threatening to look after the retail meat dealers unless they soon begin to reflect the reduction in wholesale prices, which is said to have been large. It takes sellers a long time to hear news of falling prices.

In some parts of New England rural carriers have been doing their work on snowshoes of late. This is not a rapid form of delivery, but it is a good deal better than none, as many a farming household is ready to attest.

At their unofficial state convention the Democrats of New York declared themselves "unalterably opposed to prohibition." And this is one brand of opposition of which the Democrats have no monopoly.

A Lowell, Mass., man has been fined $10 for riding a motorcycle while under the influence of liquor. It would seem that ability to ride such a machine should be proof positive of sobriety.

Don't quarrel with the price of cotton. If it goes high enough the time may come when it will be possible to buy garments which will, partially at least, back up the claim of being "part wool."

The great majority of New Englanders have ground is going to look mighty good when it comes in sight again.

FIVE NEUTRALS
ACCEPT LEAGUE

Argentine, Paraguay, Chili, Persia and Spain Send Notification.

Washington, March 3.—Texts of the formal notifications of accession of five neutral nations, including three Latin-American states to the league of nations have been received in Washington. First among them is that of the Argentine Republic, which through M. T. D'Alvear, its minister resident in Paris, wrote to Sir Eric Drummond, the secretary-general of the league of nations that he had received instructions from his government "to adhere unreservedly to the league of nations."

The Paraguayan minister in London, Cecilio Juez, wrote that his government "unreservedly accepts the covenant of the league of nations," and that "it binds itself to send its delegates to the first assembly, which will be summoned by the government named in the covenant."

In signifying the accession of Chile, the minister of that country, in London, declared "the republic of Chile makes no other reservation than that of pronouncing in its course upon such amendments or modifications of the covenant as may be made by the states which have not ratified it up to the present." It is understood that the purpose of this was to develop the position of the United States before finally committing the Chilean government.

Persia "unreservedly" in a note signed by Frazz, the Persian minister of foreign affairs. Also Persia bound itself to "fulfill the duties and obligations imposed on the states belonging to the league and to send delegates to the first general assembly of the league."

The Spanish ambassador in London recorded the accession of his government in a note in which, after reciting the unanimous act of the Cortes giving the necessary authority, he said that Spain joined the league "without reserve."

CANADA AND ARGENTINA TO COMPETE FOR OUR BUSINESS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 3.—Canada and Argentina may soon prove serious competitors of the United States in the dairy industry, government officials believe. The industry in both countries is in its infancy, yet Canada is producing 70 per cent as much cheese as the United States while Argentina is producing 13 per cent as much cheese and seven per cent as much butter. Canada's butter exports were forty-one per cent as large as those of the United States while her cheese exports greatly exceeded exports from the United States.

Argentina's butter exports were almost double those of the United States and her cheese exports equaled 32 per cent of those of the United States.

It is generally believed, government officials say, that Argentina and Canada are capable of extensive development of their industries and it is very probable, therefore, that the United States may experience in the future particularly energetic competition. Argentina, 21 days distant from New York, they say, may not be thought of seriously at this time as a direct competitor in the domestic market, but indirectly Argentine butter may supplant Canadian butter in the English market, in which case Canadian butter would find a logical outlet in the United States.

Canada is in a better position today in the world's markets with its butter and cheese than is the United States, officials declare. Moreover, the policy of Canada with her returned soldiers and immigrants towards land development in bringing results will mean larger production.

In the United States available lands are scarce and all lands generally expensive. It is reasonable to believe, government officials say that in the future production will not increase in proportion to the population, as the greater part of the really productive land is now utilized. Resumption of the importation of European butter is again giving real competition to our products.

WINTER TRAGEDY
ON LONELY FARM

Deerfield, March 2.—A tragedy of the winter just broke out in the funeral of Mrs. James Serlinier who perished a few days from pneumonia which practically resulted from the intense cold. The Serlinier family lives on what is known as the upper end of the North road and the farmhouse is nearly a mile from any other habitation. The immense snowstorm of the past few days had resulted in completely isolating the family, and no one was able to get to the Serlinier home, nor were any members of the family able to get away, and help did not come until Saturday last, when the nearest neighbors managed to fight their way through the snow to the isolated house.

It appears that all members of the Serlinier family, comprising the father, mother and several children, were ill. The thermometer had fallen to about twenty degrees below zero, and the house was surrounded by such banks of snow that no one could get in and the inmates could not get out. Mrs. Serlinier was very ill. The husband, James Serlinier, also quite ill, arose in the night to get some medicine for the other sick ones, and fainted. In the meantime, the fire in the house went out and the appalling temperature added to the misery.

Mrs. Serlinier died the following day and it is reported that one of the children may die. It was on Saturday that the neighbors managed to get to the house only to find the mother dying from pneumonia. Aid was given the other sick ones and with the exception of one of the children, it is expected that recovery will be made.

Mrs. Serlinier was a daughter of the late George Lewis and is survived by the widower, several children and a brother.

SWISS TO VOTE
ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Berne, March 2.—Switzerland will shortly submit to a referendum the question whether she should join the league of nations or not. The Swiss government and Parliament have already voted decisively for joining, but according to the constitution, the question must be submitted to popular vote before being finally decided.

Former heads of the Swiss general staff, who have been practically relieved of functions, have for some time past been making propaganda against Switzerland joining the league of nations and now have gone to the length of joining the Bolsheviks, who are the league's chief opponents.

The opposition to the league of nations not only in Switzerland, but on the continent generally, proceeds from Bolshevik and militarist camps. Every scrap of news from the American Senate about Lodge's opposition is translated into French, German, Italian and other languages and disseminated broadcast in the Bolshevik and military press, and also by pamphlets and lectures. At Bolshevik meetings, Lodge's name is often cheered and one Bolshevik recently referred to "our friend Lodge in America."

TWO BIG SHIP CONTRACTS TO KEEP NAVY YARD FORCE BUSY

Word was received from an official source yesterday at the navy yard in Brooklyn that more than $1,000,000 worth of work on two shipping board vessels is to be allotted to the yard. The news dispelled the gloom that has been hanging over the workers for some time following the report that five thousand men were to be laid off shortly. One of the vessels is the Odisse and the other the Agamemnon or the Von Steuben, both of which need overhauling.

Credit among the workers for getting the contract is given to Admiral Ford, manager of the Industrial Division.

WAR SHIPS

London, March 3.—The disposition of the Turkish navy was definitely settled by the Allied Supreme Council today when it decided that the peace treaty should provide that the warships be broken up. The Turkish army will be reduced to such a point by the peace terms that it would not be effective against another country. The council deliberated this morning upon the report of Marshal Foch on the military situation as regards Turkey but did not determine upon the details of the military terms of the treaty.

PLEASANT SOCIAL AT PLAINS SCHOOL

The Portsmouth Plains Improvement Society held a pleasant gathering Tuesday evening in the Plains schoolhouse. This was its regular monthly meeting but owing to the condition of the roads and so much sickness there was not the usual number of members present and no business meeting was held.

The time was devoted to sociability. The earlier part of the evening several informal talks were given by the president, Edward P. Shevittine, and Arthur Cook, and Miss Tuttle, matron of the Children's Home, read a paper. The remainder of the evening was devoted to whist and refreshments of sandwiches, assorted cake and coffee added pleasant interest to the occasion.

This progressive society has been handicapped by snowdrifts this winter and so was unable to have many gatherings, but it plans for able work and numerous social gatherings during the spring and summer.

RAILROAD NOTES

Storehouse Burns at Rochester

A storehouse used by the Worcester, Nashua and Portland division of the Boston and Maine at Rochester, burned on Monday and caused a loss of $7500. In the building was a carload of potatoes worth $1500 besides equipment worth several thousand dollars. The building had a slate roof. As it was necessary to keep the potatoes warm, it is supposed the cause of the fire was a defective heater. The structure was enveloped in flames when the fire department arrived and it was impossible to save anything.

Cars Buried on Siding

Several freight cars on Emory's siding in the Portsmouth yard of the Boston and Maine have been completely buried up on the track by the enormous amount of snow thrown from the main line track by snowplows during the past two weeks.

omSe Piling in Place

The workmen have succeeded in driving a dozen or more piling on the highway section of the Dover Point bridge which was recently damaged by floating ice.

Made General Agent

Frank P. Farrar has been appointed general agent of the Boston and Maine in charge of the foreign department and the records export terminal at Boston. Mr. Farrar, who is an authority on foreign trade transportation, has worked his way to his present post from office boy in the space of 22 years.

The Way Mr. Hustis Sees It. President James H. Hustis of the Boston and Maine took a position quite the opposite of President Frederick D. Underwood of the Erie railroad when he expressed his belief that the present passenger rates on the Boston and Maine and other railroads are not too high.

President Underwood was quoted as opposed to higher passenger fares. In fact, expressing his conviction that the fares "should be reduced to two cents a mile throughout the country."

"I have read the statement of Mr. Underwood," said Mr. Hustis. "and I am reluctant to seemingly enter a controversy. I am strongly of the belief, however, that the present passenger rates are not too high. I think they are as low as they possibly could be under the present conditions."

"This is not the time to talk about lower passenger rates. There is a plan under general discussion for the revision of freight rates and until some determination of the question has been reached, I don't think it wise to discuss passenger rates."

"There are many things to be accomplished before any reduction in fares or freight rates would be advisable."

Still Shoveling

Another large crew of snow shovelers were sent to Dover from Portsmouth this morning via Rockingham. The men were furnished under contract by Tony Phils for the Boston and Maine.

Moving Some Freight

The regular freight train schedule of the Boston and Maine has not as yet been operation although much freight is being moved especially of a perishable nature. The snow is still holding back shipments at terminals and transfer points.

K. OF C. NOTES

The arrangements for the annual Easter Monday ball are nearly completed and the committee in charge promises the biggest success of the season.

The tickets are selling fast for the performance of "My New Chale." The next rehearsal will be on next Sunday.

General Secretary Kelley has had all the phones and talking machines turned up and everything possible is being done to entertain the men in uniform who are always welcome at the home. The library, reading room and showers are always well patronized.

CHAMPLIN COMPANY GIVING SPLENDID SHOWS

There is something about the performances given by the Charles H. Champlin Company at the Colonial theatre that is entirely different. There is an atmosphere surrounding the work of each member of the company that stamps them in a class by themselves. Each play they have presented has been rendered equally as good or better than the majority of so-called high priced shows that have been seen here. Yesterday afternoon and evening "Eyes of Youth" was the offering. Another packed house greeted the players. "Eyes of Youth" is a mystery play and it just kept the audience guessing and wondering how it all would end. Many were heard to remark as they were leaving the theatre that it was one of the very best plays that has been seen at the Colonial in a long time. Champlin has struck the keynote of popular favor. He knows what his patrons want and he gives them "the goods" that make the house.

The play for tonight is George M. Cohan's famous hit "Broadway Jones." In this piece Mr. Cohan made the biggest hit of his career. It is one of those New England heart interest love stories that is brim full of punch and life which keeps the audience in suspense all the time. It is interwoven with comedy that brings roars of laughter between soba and tears.

TO PLAY N. H. COLLEGE GIRLS TODAY

The High school basketball team will play the New Hampshire College girls team at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium this afternoon. The game will be started at 4:15 and it promises to be very interesting as both are good teams. The local team has been winning consistently at home and on strange floors and they are quite confident of being able to take the measure of the college girls.

The High school girls team will play a return game with the Haverhill High in this city on Saturday afternoon. In their game at Haverhill the locals won by two points in a very close game and they expect a hard fought game on the part of the visitors.

The High school boys team will be matched Saturday evening against the strong Allen Military school team of Newton. This team has been rated as one of the fastest school basketball teams in greater Boston and it is hoped that it may be arranged so that they may play between the periods of the professional game. It would give the boys a good crowd to play before and the game would be sure to be faster than on the small floor of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. It would also prove a great preliminary game for the professional team.

The Winsor Vt. team a keen rival of the Springfield team which has Ed. Wether for a pivot are on a tour of Massachusetts and played Gloucester on Tuesday. This would be a big attraction for Croton fast aggregation.

The St. Alphonsus A. C. five of Boston will play the Portsmouth professional team on Saturday evening, and a very fast game may be looked for. This team have been beating the majority of the best Boston teams, but were defeated by the Fall River team last week by three points. Fall River is claiming the New England championship, and they have defeated of Pio Harvey's Newport team, the Bunker Hill Legion, the Red Top and other claimants. The St. Alphonsus team claim to be a faster team than Bunker Hill, which is saying a mouthful.

Manager Barney Forth of the Building 89 team at the Navy Yard has been unable to tempt Henry Crogen to give him a game. Crogen claims that he has booked his team for every Saturday night in March and the first two weeks in April, with the best teams in New England, and he cannot afford to cancel any of these games for the sake of playing the Building 89 team. He is of the opinion that the tank would not support him in such a move.

CADDOCK DOWNS CHEVALIER

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., March 3.—In one of the most spectacular wrestling matches seen in this vicinity in recent years, Earl Caddock, down, former catch-as-catch-can wrestling champion, tonight defeated Salvatore Chevalier, champion of France and Inter-Allied title-holder before a crowd of nine thousand. A vice-like head lock with an arm lock, gave Caddock the victory in 55 minutes. The match was replete with thrills from start to finish with Caddock the aggressor throughout.

ROUGH BASKETBALL CONTEST AT FALL RIVER

Fall River, March 2.—The Colossal team could not hold the Fall River post team in their game tonight, losing to the home team 23 to 18. The game was exciting and rough, the players thinking of little else than covering up their opponents. 21 fouls being called on each team for breaches of the rules. The game was not free from injuries and many players had to call for a respite to have their injuries attended to.

Easy on your feet — extra thickness where the wear comes

At the nets, pitchforking the catch, washing out the scuppers, cleaning fish for hours at a stretch—the hardest work you do is made twice as hard if your boots go bad.

It's cold, wet feet if they leak—blisters, chafed skin, and aching muscles for hours if they don't fit.

A real fisherman's boot—strong and tough at every point, made on a good comfortable last—that's the new U.S.

rubber boot, made for fishermen. Every U. S. boot is backed up with extra thicknesses of pure rubber and good strong duck where the wear is hardest.

Every pair has plenty of room at the toes and is shaped so as not to rub up and down at the heel.

Go to the store and see for yourself these U. S. Boots for fishermen—any length you want—the Storm King, the Sporting, the Knee Boot. Ask for U. S. Rubber footwear—it means solid wear and long service for your money.

FATHER AND SON WEEK AT Y. M. C. A.

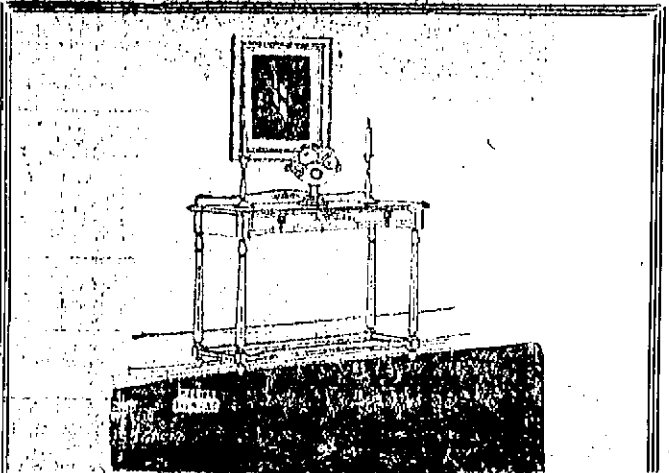

The annual "Father and Son Banquet" of the Y. M. C. A. will be held Thursday evening, March 11 at 6.30 o'clock. In response to the Father and Son Week movement will be observed here the week of March 8-14. The local boys' work committee composed of Charles H. Walker, Leo T. Gray and R. Clyde Margeson have arranged the following program for this week.

Tuesday, March 9—Father and Son movie night at the Y. M. C. A.; Thursday, March 11—the banquet; and on March 14 Father and Son Sunday, each father and son to attend their particular church together.

The committee believes Father and Son Week has an important bearing on civic welfare in our community, as well as on individual welfare in countless cases, and ask the fathers to help make this week a success.

The purpose is admirable. Anything that tends to bring father and son closer together in friendly spirit can not but be beneficial to themselves and to the community. Fathers can do more than any others to stem the great and alarming tide of "drifting" out of school, which carried half a boy out into the world.

When Planning on New Home Furnishings.

It pays to be fastidious. Buy the very best your purse can afford, and don't be satisfied with articles which seem cheap but which will prove expensive in the long run.

Expensive furniture is not always the high priced furniture. Often it is the piece with which you are not quite content, but which you buy because you think you can afford nothing better.

Put the same effort into selecting your furniture that you do into selecting your clothes. You expect to pay for a garment which suits you perfectly in price and cut. Clothes last only a year or two. Furniture should last a lifetime. Why not have what you will always like? Margeson Brothers can show you the furniture that will satisfy you in style and workmanship.

HUNDREDS OF NAMES BEING ADDED

Special Census Enumerator on the Job Here.

Hundreds of names were not taken in this city by the census enumerators. This fact has been clearly established by The Herald. The fight made by The Herald for a perfect census for Portsmouth has won much praise from all sides and several hundred individuals and families have called or phoned The Herald that their names were omitted. J. William Dunn has been employed by the state supervisor to recheck certain districts and some fifty cases filed by The Herald on Tuesday of last week he found that all of them had been slipped by the enumerator. He has many more names and it will take many days to recheck the census of Portsmouth.

THE HERALD HEARS

That the police board now say that the new motor patrol number is yet in the air.

That a man named Downes, is having a hearing before the Public Service Board at Concord today on the matter of a license allowing him to run from Atlantic Heights.

That some opposition has developed against his petition by other city men.

That the politicians in Washington want the peace treaty put up to the people for their opinion and as a campaign matter.

That they don't say put the matter of prohibition and other things up to the people.

That the people should have as much to say on prohibition and other things that are going wrong in Washington as well as the peace treaty.

That the boats conducted by the American Legion at Dover on Monday night were the best the fans have seen for many days.

FEED BIRDS IN COLD WEATHER

During the heavy snow storms this month many birds have perished from hunger and many more of the feathered tribe would have perished had it not been for the efforts of the government and many private individuals who fed them. The fish and game warden have distributed grain whenever it could do this where it was learned that the birds congregated.

Mr. Thompson of Hampton, a representative of the fish and game commission was in this city yesterday to aid in this work and also to look into reports that persons have been seen on gunning trips on the outskirts of the city on Sundays and possibly may be after the pheasants which are seen in this vicinity this winter. It can be proven that any persons are killing the pheasants they will be punished to the full extent of the law. The law is now on for all fur bearing animals and there is really nothing to call the sportsmen out.

Among the places in the suburbs where the pheasants have been seen regularly this winter is at the Hayes farm at the Plains. They come within two rods of the house and are becoming quite tame. The inmates of the farm are daily feeding thirteen pheasants, three crows and two Arctic larks who come daily to be fed and the members of the household enjoy feeding the birds who seem to be grateful for what is being done for them.

In the garden of the Chase Home six pheasants have been seen almost daily this winter and are being fed by the matron and inmates.

DRAGGING FOR COAL AND JUNK ON WATER FRONT

Fishermen Grappling Off Navy Yard Docks, Making Good on Sale of Metal.

Several fishermen of this city have appealed to the commandant of the navy yard to be allowed to grapple for junk and coal on the bottom of the river along the water front, and have been allowed to do so without interference from the marine guard or yard officials. These men work on their honor and must keep away from ships and when anything is brought to the surface of any value to the navy it must be handed over to the yard officials.

One of the first finds, made by George Caswell, was a telescope for a gun sight which was taken to the yard and turned in to the commanding officer. The fishermen have brought up considerable coal as well as scrap metal, all of which would not be recovered by the government, and the men are said to have made considerable money on the sale of iron, copper, brass and other scrap which has been resting in the mud of the Piscataqua for many years.

The permission of Rear Admiral Halstead to allow these men to drag the water front is much appreciated from the fact that they are finding it hard to make a living, just now, owing to the fact that many of the men who follow lobstering, have lost everything in the way of gear during the hard weather of the past two months.
